This evening we welcomed Kyla Jenkins and Will.

Alice Newton gave a terrific PowerPoint presentation. She showed us how she manipulated an image taken in the drive-thru carwash. She started the process in Lightroom then moved the image into photoshop and used various filters to distort, pixilate, twist, flip, rotate, etc. until she got just what she was looking for. She also presented other abstracts of light bulbs, buildings and a silo.

You can check out other abstracts on line at the Joseph Miller Center for the Photographic Arts and Mollie Isaacs.

There was a discussion of the appropriate sizes of images for the Summit Point Library. Doug Allmond and Mary Jo Bennett will visit the library to get a better idea of the best sizes to hang in their small space. The Board will meet soon to make their recommendation. Mary Jo mentioned that Club members could also take unframed pieces to sell.

Members who have agreed to exhibit are: John Kracke, Doug Allmond, Mike Keefe, Ellen Hardesty, Kyla Jenkins, Rip Smith, Cherie Casari, Mary Jo Bennett and Alice Newton.

Mary Jo Bennett is our new media director. She will see that we get good coverage of our events.

Alice Newton and Mary Jo Bennett have photos displayed in the Hagerstown Museum. Ellen Hardesty sold one of her photos at the recent Fire House Gallery exhibit. Congrats to all.

A decision has not yet been made to have the March meeting at the Fire House Gallery or to continue to have a Zoom session. Stay tuned....
